

Canada Offers Opportunities To Immigrants From Old Land Who Are Willing to Work

John Wheatley, Labor M.P. in the House of Commons, in a meeting at Glasgow, declared it was extremely cruel to send people to Canada for farm work, as they would be better off at home. "I would not send them to Canada," he said, "if I could find them a better place to go to." He said that the Dominion is overworked in the sense that it has no more room for the truth, nevertheless it is willing to accept more immigrants. He said that he had been to the Dominion and had seen the work that was being done there. He said that he had been to the Dominion and had seen the work that was being done there. He said that he had been to the Dominion and had seen the work that was being done there.

Map Making Ancient Art

Had the Greeks in Early Days of Egypt and Greece Maps are always very interesting subjects, and when one considers the fact that the first maps were made by the ancients, it is not surprising to find that the art of map making has been in existence for thousands of years. The first map was made by the ancients, and it was a very simple one. It was a map of the world, and it was made by the ancients. It was a map of the world, and it was made by the ancients. It was a map of the world, and it was made by the ancients.
